Decide now to live out beauty redefined.

1. redefine WHAT YOU PUT ON

Determine each day that what you put on is not about making yourself more beautiful but simply about being a beautiful you -- a unique part of God's creation.

2. redefine YOUR SIGNIFICANCE

Spend time each day using your unique combination of gifts, talents, and personality to serve others for the glory of God, leaving a significant impact on this world because of how you live, not how you look.

3. redefine THE BEAUTY YOU SEE

Make the time daily to speak beauty into the lives of others women, from little toddlers through grown adults. Point out their God-given beauty in the way they serve, speak, respond, create, love, inspire, and look.

4. redefine YOUR IMPACT

Tell others about the movement to redefined beauty. Share on Facebook. Twitter. Email. Use your influence to convey a message, especially to the media, that you want to see images of real women, made beautiful by their Creator, as they live real lives of real significance.
