Elisa Pulliam is passionate about inspiring this generation of women to experience a fresh encounter with God for the sake of impacting the next generation.

In spite of not growing up in a Christian home, and spending many years in rebellion, Lisa (which is what she prefers to be called and there's a story about that) came to know Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in the fall of 1993. Ever since, the Lord has been in the process of transforming her from the outside in and inside out. It's this first-hand encounter with God that motivates her to inspire women to pursue God personally and join Him in work in their lives.

Elisa has been involved in youth and women's ministries for more than two decades, spending 18 years at Christian boarding and day school, thanks to her husband's profession as a high school teacher. Being immersed in such a unique community is what inspired Elisa to launch MoretoBe.com in the fall of 2011 as well as write Impact Together: Biblical Mentoring Simplified and the ENGAGE Bible Study Series for tween and teen girls.

Soon after launching More to Be, however, Elisa discovered that there was an equally important need to reach women stuck in a rut of poor habits and unhealthy thinking, and began shifting the ministry focus towards women seeking spiritual growth and life transformation. She became a certified life coach and later joined Life Breakthrough Academy as a life coach trainer, having no idea at the time that God would use this experience in the writing of Meet the New You: A 21-Day Plan for Embracing Fresh Attitudes and Focused Habits for Real Life Change.

Elisa's latest release is a 90-day devotional for women in all seasons and stages of life, Unblinded Faith: Gaining Spiritual Sight Through Believing God's Word, truly reflects the present heartbeat of ministry as well as the More to Be Podcast. You'll also find Elisa contributing to TheBetterMom.com, ThriveMoms.com, the Moment to Breathe devotional, and in Courage 365 Devotional Bible, as well as a featured speaker at MOPS groups, churches, retreats, and conferences. Elisa also loves supporting women in their business and ministry endeavors through her branding, missional marketing, and design business, The Kaleo Agency (kaleoagency.net).

Elisa believes each moment of each day belongs to the Lord and strives to be emotionally present and eternally purposed, especially with her husband of 22 years, Stephen, and her four tween through college age children.

With beautiful integrity and an open heart, Elisa encourages women to embrace life.
